Sandy Stimpson

Mayor of the City of Mobile

As a founding member of Prichard Preparatory School, Mobile Mayor, Sandy Stimpson, has played a pivotal role in the growth and success of the school. After graduating from The University of Alabama with a degree in Civil Engineering, Mayor Stimpson moved home to begin his career with Scotch & Gulf Lumber, where he still serves as Executive Vice President.

Stimpson is a 1992 graduate of Leadership Alabama and has been committed to the business and civic developments in the south Alabama area for decades. Stimpson has served as a Trustee on the Board of UMS-Wright Preparatory School where he served as Chairman twice. Stimpson is also a member of The University of Alabama President's Cabinet and has been actively involved in countless other local civic and professional organizations. Mayor Stimpson's leadership and business acumen have been instrumental in the success of Prichard Prep.
